Who we share your

GDPR stands for the General Data Protection Regulation. This regulation has been implemented in all local privacy laws across the entire EU and EEA region. It will apply to all companies selling to and storing personal information about citizens in Europe, including companies on other continents.

We only keep your personal data for the length of time we need for stated processing purposes. When no longer required this information is deleted from our systems.

Your contact information

To contact us for details of what data we hold on you please email gdpr@inevitableyeam.com. For security reasons you will need to confirm your identity before we release data. Please use the subject title GDPR ENQUIRY.

What rights you have over your data

You can request to receive an exported file of the personal data we hold about you, including any data you have provided to us. You can also request that we erase any personal data we hold about you. This does not include any data we are obliged to keep for administrative, legal, or security purposes.

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) you have a number of rights relating to the collection, processing and storing of your personal information.

In relation to using our website, including contacting us via the website, you have the right to:

- Be informed about certain aspects of our processing of your personal data
- Request access to a copy of your personal data
- Request that any personal data that is inaccurate or incomplete is rectified
- Request erasure of your personal data in certain circumstances (also known as the right to be forgotten)
- Restrict the processing of your personal data in certain circumstances
- Object to the processing of your personal data in certain circumstances

In addition, where the processing is being performed on the basis of your consent you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time. This withdrawal will not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out before consent was withdrawn.

If you believe that we have not complied with the requirements of GDPR in relation to the processing of your personal data you have the right to submit a complaint to the relevant supervisory authority. In the UK this is the Information Commissioners' Office (<https://ico.org.uk/>).
